

Please amend claim 34 as follows:

Claim 34 (amended) A transmission including:

an input means;

an output means;

a first plurality of secondary members for supplying output power for only part of each rotary cycle of the input means in a first direction;

a second plurality of secondary members for supplying output power for only part of each rotary cycle of the input means in a reverse direction opposite the first direction;

power transfer means for engagement with the first plurality of secondary members and the second plurality of secondary members;

first orbit control means for causing the first and second plurality of secondary members to undergo orbital motion;

second orbital control means for causing the power transfer means to undergo orbital motion so the combined orbital motion causes power to be transmitted from the input means to the output means; and means for selectively allowing supply of power between the first plurality of secondary members and the power transfer means in the first direction and supply of power between the second plurality of secondary members and the power transfer means in the reverse opposite direction first direction or the opposite reverse direction.
